

CRAFT IN AMERICA

PRESENTS

The Artist-Blacksmith's Association of North America is a proud participant in Handwork 2026, Craft in America's year-long Semiquincentennial collaboration among organizations, educators, and makers to showcase the importance of the handmade and celebrate the diversity of the crafts that define America.

- Four special episodes of Craft in America on PBS
- 300+ participating organizations nationwide
- Core exhibition at the Renwick Gallery of the Smithsonian American Art Museum opens November 13!
- Exhibitions & community events in all 50 states & Puerto Rico
- Educational programs for K-12 and lifelong learners
- 10 university artist residencies
- Book exploring the craft continuum of American culture
- Website with interactive map and events calendar

Images, top to bottom: Silversmiths, Cowboy Trades Association; Jim Bassler, George Washington, courtesy of the artist; Ilan-Lael Center and Volcan Mountain, by John Durant; Ange Muhorakeye, by Michael Wilson Photography for the Craft Content Project, Maine Crafts Association; Handwork: Handcrafted Objects That Made America.

Learn more at www.handwork2026.org